CARRANZA DECLARES CHIEFS ARE LOYAL

Telegram From First Chief Indicates He Will Resist Villa Demands.

Indications that General Carranza is repared to resist the demands of Genral Villa for his retirement as "first hief" are seen in a telegram received at constitutionalist headquarters today from Carranza, in which he contradicts reports of disloyalty among his followers.

'Not a single chief has described the anks of the government," Carranta's telegram declares. He adds that Saltillo, Zacatecas, and San Luis Potosl are still loyal. The executive declares that the outlook for peace is "still Carrana's telegram was called forth

That the issue between Carranza and For years one of the foremost mem-Villa will come to the test at the Aguas Callentes peace conference Saturday is the conviction of Administration officials, who are stil lhopeful that the question of supremacy in the new government can be settled without further bloodshed. A meeting between Villa and Carranza at that conference is one of the possibilities. Villa is reported on his way from Zacatecas to Aguas Calientes, ac-companied by George C. Carothers, spe-cial representative of the State Department. Carranza previously had indi-cated his intention of coming north for his conference.

A general truce is in operation in Mexico pending the outcome of Satur-day's peace conference at Aguas Call-entes, according to advices received in Washington today, except that the lighting between the Hill and Maytorens forces in Sonora continues in a desultory manner.
